

May is “National Bike Month.” If you could create a bicycle path through your neighborhood or town, where would the path lead? Include a description of the sites and sounds someone would see along your bike path. You may also want to include a map of your path.